INTEREST AROUSED IN JUVENILE'S COURT
Matter Will Be Brought Definitively to Attention of General Assembly.

Great interest is being developed in the matter of the establishment of a juvenile court for the city of Richmond. The subject has been agitated for several years, but is now a live issue. Rev. Zed. H. Copp, of Washington, an officer of the Juvenile Court Association of that city, will lecture in the assembly hall of the Chamber of Commerce on Friday evening on the subject, "A Juvenile Court for Richmond." The matter will probably be brought definitively to the attention of the General Assembly next January.

Briefly stated, the purpose of such a court is to save wayward children from a career of crime, and to make them, instead, good citizens. With a wise, just and great-hearted man to preside over such a tribunal, it is confidently believed that many a boy and girl may be turned from a life which would otherwise lead inevitably to crime and disgrace. Such a court would supplement parental discipline and replace it altogether where, as is too often the case, the parent fails to exercise proper supervision and care in the training of the child.

Mayor McCarthy is warmly in favor of the court, and has the maximum number of votes for the address of Mr. Copp is arranged. He will probably present the speaker.

INSPECT GUARDS.
Chase City Company Shows Up Well—Ranks Will Be Full.

Men were in new uniform with ornamental breast-boards and made a very creditable appearance. This company will have the maximum number allowed for the Jamestown encampment. There would have been more men in line, but some have not yet received their new uniform suits. Many spectators attended, and the matter and inspection in the large warehouse building.

BIG POWER PLANT.
Plans Being Made for Establishment Near Linville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SENCER, N. C., April 6.—R. L. Wiede, a civil engineer of Washington, D. C., is this week making plans for a mammoth electric and water power plant, near Linville, Burke county, which will be developed at a cost of $1,500,000. The site is in a deep gorge in the heart of the mountains, fifteen miles from a settlement of any size. This is said to be an enormous amount of power available at the proposed plant. Mr. Wiede, who passed through Salisbury last night en route to Washington, reports eight to ten inches of snow in Western North Carolina at this time, with drifts five feet deep.

Wanted Longer Sessions.
MEHERRIN, VA., April 6.—An educational meeting which is of great interest to the people of this county, was held at unenbun, courthouse, this week, with a large attendance. Professors Saunders and Russell and State Superintendent J. D. Eggleston were the principal speakers. The portion of the arguments presented by these gentlemen is for better schools and graded ones.

There has been a great deal of talk during the past year by the people of this county, and the people generally, about the need of better schools, while several signs have been placed to locate these, not one has been established.

These gentlemen are advocating that one of these be erected in each district in this country, and this proposition is being favorably received. This attending this meeting, eight months' work in many instances nine months' session was wanted, and the people generally are in favor of this, and there seems no doubt but that this great educational meeting will result in the people taking hold of this matter and erecting graded schools—one in each district in the county, with sessions of nine months each.

PRESIDENT MAY SAIL THE HISTORIC JAMES
President Tucker, of Exposition Company, Gets Army Appointment for His Son—Postal Clerks to Have Better Cars and Safer Service.

BY WALTER EDWARD HARRIS.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—Colonel S. M. Newhouse, of Culpeper, former member of the House of Delegates, is in Washington, and is making the pending contest for the Democratic nomination to Congress from that district.

"Ten of the eleven lawyers of Culpeper are going to vote for me, or for one of the three lawyer candidates," he said. "I think there is no doubt that they will vote this way out of compliment to their professional brethren. If this be true, I cannot see why the farmers should not vote for me. The farmer candidate, John E. Ryan, I believe he will carry Culpeper county."

Mr. Newhouse says he is not taking any part in the contest for nominations to county offices, but is doing all he can to aid Mr. Ryan in his fight for the congressional nomination. He says that the fight for the nomination to the House of Delegates between Aiden Bell and D. A. Slaughter, the incumbent, is warm, and he believes the result is involved in much doubt. Edwin Gibson, son of the late distinguished Cattell Gibson, Esq., will be elected Commonwealth's attorney without opposition.

ONE WORD COSTS GOULD $28,500
Big Big D Applied to Architect by Mrs. Howard Gould Must Be Paid For.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Howard Gould will have to pay $28,500 because two years ago his wife called a man J. Haydel a "d—d architect," and expelled him from a room in the Waldorf, where he had come to submit his twelfth set of plans for Millionaire Gould's castle at Sands Point, L. I.

The Court of Appeals at Albany has decided this by affirming a decision handed down by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, June 18, 1906. Mr. Gould must pay $28,500, and $2,500 interest on the sum for two years.

Few cases have been as bitter as Architect Haydel's against Mr. Gould. It began in 1905, when the architect received the contract for Castle Gould. He submitted numerous plans, but they were unsatisfactory to the New York millionaire and his wife.

The final break came when Haydel was ordered from a room in the Waldorf by Mrs. Gould, who, he said, called him a "d—d architect."

Haydel began suit for $50,000, and the case was taken to the Appellate Division, where the architect got judgment for $28,500. The Goulds appealed the case, and last March it was taken before the Court of Appeals, where it was argued. The court handed down a unanimous affirmation of the former decision last Tuesday.

Robert Thorne, attorney for Haydel, said to-day that Mr. Gould would have to pay up, but that if he refused to do so a sheriff would be sent after him.

Mrs. Gould was formerly Katherine Chenoweth, an actress, and caprices have got her into more lawsuits than would come to a dozen ordinary persons in a lifetime.
